

Evaluation form The performance of Dr Professor

Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development Affairs

Dear colleagues working at the college:

In an effort to further develop the college's work, this survey is being administered to all college employees to gain their opinions on the performance of the Vice Dean for Community Service and Environmental Development. The goal is to identify and reinforce positive aspects, as well as address negative aspects and take the necessary steps to improve them. Please note that the data in this survey is confidential and will not be used for any other purpose

	phrase	1	2	3	4	5
		Completely disagree	Disagree	agree	Fairly agree	Very agree
1	He follows the democratic approach in making decisions in the committees he supervises
2	Periodically updates the database of institutions' activities in the fields of community service, environmental development, and data on relevant community sectors (local and regional community institutions).
3	Supervises the conduct of studies to determine the needs of the environment, whether local or national.
4	He is concerned with developing annual plans, training programs, and consultations that support communication between the college and the outside community.
5	Organizes courses to develop students' skills in areas of specialization
6	He is interested in maintaining constant communication with community institutions to employ college graduates.
7	organize a regular employment forum with the attendance of civil society institutions and the private sector.
8	Encourages the acquisition of externally funded projects involving students, faculty members, and college staff.
9	Follows up on the activities of special units and production units and makes efforts to develop the college's own resources.
10	He is Careful to hold periodic seminars and conferences for the college.
11	Follows up on the implementation of the executive plan of the Crisis and Disaster Management Unit
12	Interacts positively with his departments, faculty members, and academic and administrative leaders at the college.

13	Encourages students and faculty members to participate in community service and environmental development activities.
14	Gives Efforts to market the academic programs and services provided by the college at the local and regional levels.
15	Supports development and improvement plans and the college's quality system
16	Follows up on the implementation of the executive plan for the graduate follow-up units/graduate association/graduate office
17	Follows up on the implementation of the IT unit's executive plan and periodically updates the website.

Notes you would like to add:

.....
.....